Reusable Sandwich Bags for Corporate Gifting

Caldrea

Caldrea created a branded bag unique to their company's look and feel. This eco-friendly, clean and simple bag was designed as a personalized corporate gift that kept in line with Caldrea's clean and simple product line.

Reusable products are also in line with their corporate philosophy . . .

" . . .Every day, we aim to provide the most gratifying and thoroughly addictive home and body care products available. We're passionate about choosing the most potent and responsible ingredients that are incredibly effective, yet safe and gentle for our homes and our loved ones. It is this passion that centers our product experience, connecting beauty, thoughtfulness and optimism. It is a reflection of the positivity we hope to inspire in people's lives.

We create incredible, effective formulas that are addictively pleasurable to use and are crafted to be safe for you, your home and the earth."

Mrs. Meyers Clean Day

Mrs. Meyer's Clean Day asked for a unique corporate gift. Their delicate logo kept the image of their brand nicely on their eco-friendly ReUsie. Our environmentally friendly bag was a great match for Mrs. Meyer's earth friendly products.

Reusable products are also in line with their corporate philosophy . . .

" . . .With scents that are inspired by a Midwest backyard garden, and products that are chock-full of plant-derived ingredients and essential oils, we're continuously channeling Thelma's passion for the environment. As a mother of nine, she was no-nonsense, and had a sensible approach to living a healthy and balanced life.

PEPS Apalooza Family Music Fest

PEPS (Program for Early Parent Support) holds their annual PEPS Apalooza concert event for families at The Bowl at Redhook Brewery in Woodinville, WA. This custom bag was a family friendly thank you for all the staff and volunteers that helped organize and run the event which helps future families thrive by getting a great start into parenthood through joining a PEPS Group!

ReUsies is another easy, helpful tool for parents to make life simpler. PEPS is recognized as a universal preventative model which means we help new parents anticipate challenges, and proactively provide support and information to equip them with a strong foundation of parenting skills. At the conclusion of their groups, PEPS parents say they feel more connected, confident, competent, knowledgeable and supported.

WestSide Baby

WestSide Baby, in partnership with the community, provides essential items to local children in need by collecting and distributing diapers, clothing, toys and equipment. ReUsies partnered with WestSide Baby for the 2013 12th Annual Fundraising Tea to create 600 custom ReUsies for Tea attendees. We're proud to say that the Tea raised over $225,000 for children in need.

ReUsies and WestSide Baby are both doing their part for the environment. A single ReUsies bag replaces hundreds of plastic sandwich or snack bags destined to go into landfills or waterways. WestSide Baby ReRide program distributes donated car seats to families in need, and recycles over 1.6 million pounds of car seats that can't be reused.

Bethenny Frankel - Snack Talkin'

Skinnygirl entrepreneur and reality television star Bethenny Frankel is snacking smart with almonds in her custom ReUsies. This fun bag was used at special events in New York and Los Angeles in conjunction with her campaign to snack smart.

We at ReUsies are busy parents like all of you and Bethenny Frankel. As she says...

"As a woman constantly on the go—raising a toddler, running my own business, preparing to host my own talk show and trying to keep fit while doing it all—having healthy, food choices in a snap is a necessity. Smart snacking is the key."

Almond Board of California

The Almond Board of California promoted the California Almonds brand with their custom ReUsies. At this Canadian event for the Almond Board, this custom corporate gift provided a valuable giveaway for their selected recipients.

Eating healthy and packing nutritious snacks in a ReUsie is important. We share the same healthy vision as the Almond Board which is to keep bodies, and especially hearts, in the best shape possible, it's important to maintain a healthy weight. That's why integrating almonds into your products or recipes is not only a smart choice, but also a truly satisfying one.
